

Diversity and Migration:
Transforming Our Cities and Regions

CaDDANZ

Capturing the Diversity Dividend of Aotearoa/New Zealand

---

Pathways, Circuits and Crossroads Conference 2015

23 and 24 July 2015, Westpac Stadium, Wellington

---

Thursday, July 23, 2015

9.00 – 9.15	Mihi Whakatau and Opening Remarks Jacques Poot (University of Waikato)
SESSION ONE	State of the Nation Chair: Jacques Poot (University of Waikato)
9.15 – 9.45	Keynote Address: Minister of Immigration, Hon. Michael Woodhouse
9.45 – 10.15	Immigration in the context of MBIE's wider policy goals and objectives Stephen Dunstan (Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment)
10.15 – 10.30	Response and Discussion
10.30 – 11.00	Refreshment Break
SESSION TWO	Migration and Business Chair: Richard Bedford (University of Waikato)
11.00 – 11.20	New Zealand's investor migrants: Decision making and experiences Mary Adams and Natalie Ellen-Eliza (Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment)
11.20 – 11.40	Migrant Entrepreneurs – What makes a successful migrant business? Michael Eglinton (Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment)
11.40 – 12.00	Understanding the Christchurch Rebuild Workforce: A baseline measure of their characteristics Alice Cleland and Virginia Burns (Inland Revenue)
12.00 – 12.30	Response and Discussion
12.30 – 1.30	Lunch
SESSION THREE	Immigration, Circulation and Settlement Chair: Trudie Cain (Auckland Council)

1.30 – 1.50	Here for good? Judi Altinkaya (Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment)
1.50 – 2.10	Vulnerable migrant workers in New Zealand. What do we know? Wendy Searle (Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment)
2.10 – 2.30	“The RSE is just the beginning”: reflections on recent developments in managed temporary migration programmes for Pacific Islanders in New Zealand Richard Bedford (University of Waikato)
2.30 – 3.00	Response and Discussion
3.00 – 3.30	Refreshment Break
SESSION FOUR	Diversity Impacts Chair: Paul Spoonley
3.30 – 4.15	The economics of cultural diversity: What have we learned? Invited International Speaker: Max Nathan (London School of Economics and National Institute of Social and Economic Research, UK)
4.15 – 4.30	Response and Discussion
4.30 – 4.50	An outline of CaDDANZ research Jacques Poot (University of Waikato)
4.50 – 5.00	Response and Discussion
5.00 – 6.00	Drinks

Friday, July 24, 2015

SESSION ONE	(Super) Diversity: Cities, Institutions and Politics Chair: Robin Peace
9.00 – 9.45	A post-multicultural era? Diversification, cities and the politics of diversity Invited International Speaker: Maria Schiller (Max Planck Institute, Germany)
9.45 – 10.00	Response and Discussion
10.00 – 10.20	Superdiversity in Aotearoa: Institutional responsiveness to diversification Paul Spoonley (Massey University)
10.20 – 10.30	Response and Discussion
10.30 – 11.00	Refreshment Break

SESSION TWO	Superdiversity and Commonplace Diversity Chair: Judi Altinkaya (Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment)
11.00 – 11.20	The Legal and Policy implications of Superdiversity: Case Study on democracy and electoral laws Mai Chen (Superdiversity Centre for Law, Policy and Business, University of Auckland)
11.20 – 11.40	Commonplace diversity. So what? Angelique Praat and Robin Peace (Massey University)
11.40 – 12.00	The Balmoral shops: Bridging the gap between knowing and doing Trudie Cain and Carina Meares (Auckland Council)
12.00 – 12.30	Response and Discussion
12.30 – 1.30	Lunch
SESSION THREE	Regional Trends and Diversity Chair: Philip Morrison (Victoria University of Wellington)
1.30 – 1.50	Immigration outcomes of international tertiary students Cath Taylor (Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment)
1.50 – 2.10	Does the power of diversity in governance apply to schools? Exploratory evidence from New Zealand Jacques Poot and Louis Wright (University of Waikato)
2.10 – 2.30	Towards a Social Atlas for New Zealand Natalie Jackson (Massey University) and Lars Brabyn (University of Waikato)
2.30 – 3.00	Response and Discussion
3.00 – 3.30	Refreshment Break
SESSION FOUR	Migration and Inequality Chair: Carina Meares (Auckland Council)
3.30 – 3.50	Working on Wall Street or relaxing on the Riviera? Age-related impacts of income and wellbeing on regional migration Arthur Grimes (MOTU)
3.50 – 4.10	The loneliness of the long distance migrant Philip Morrison (Victoria University of Wellington)
4.10 – 4.30	Revisiting income inequality within and between New Zealand's regions: Analysis of 1986–2013 Census data Dave Mare (MOTU)
4.30 – 4.50	Response and Discussion
4.50 – 5.00	Closing Remarks Jacques Poot (University of Waikato)